

Education Specialist Credential Intern Program

Placer County Office of Education Leadership and Learning Collaborative

The PCOE Leadership and Learning Collaborative (LLC) is excited to offer our Education Specialist Mild/Moderate and Moderate/Severe Credential Intern Programs! These programs are accredited by the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing (CCTC) and are designed to prepare future education specialists in Placer County.

PCOE’s Education Specialist Credential Intern Programs are a wonderful opportunity for....

- Credentialed teachers interested in adding an Education Specialist credential
- School support individuals with some instructional experience (substitute teachers, instructional aides, tutors, volunteers)
- Recent college graduates interested in teaching Special Education
- Second career re-entry professionals
- Candidates unable to pursue traditional teacher preparation programs (due to family schedules, economic issues, etc.)

Attend one of our information meetings to learn more about these exciting programs
